The Taxpayer Certainty and Disaster Tax Relief Act allows those who don't itemize their deductions a deduction of up to $300 for cash contributions made during 2021. Married couples filing jointly are allowed a deduction of up to $600 for the cash contributions they make during 2021.

In addition, for those individuals that itemize their deductions, the Act extends the suspension of the 60% limit on cash contributions through 2021, thus allowing larger cash contributions during the COVID crisis—potentially up to 100% of the AGI.

In 2021, corporations may continue to deduct charitable gifts up to 25 percent of the corporation's taxable income (increased from 10 percent).
